THE CLARION

To Literature

*There is no frigate like a book
To take us lands away,
Nor any coursers like a page
Of prancing poetry.
This traverse may the poorest take
Without oppress of toll;
How frugal is the chariot
That bears a human soul!*

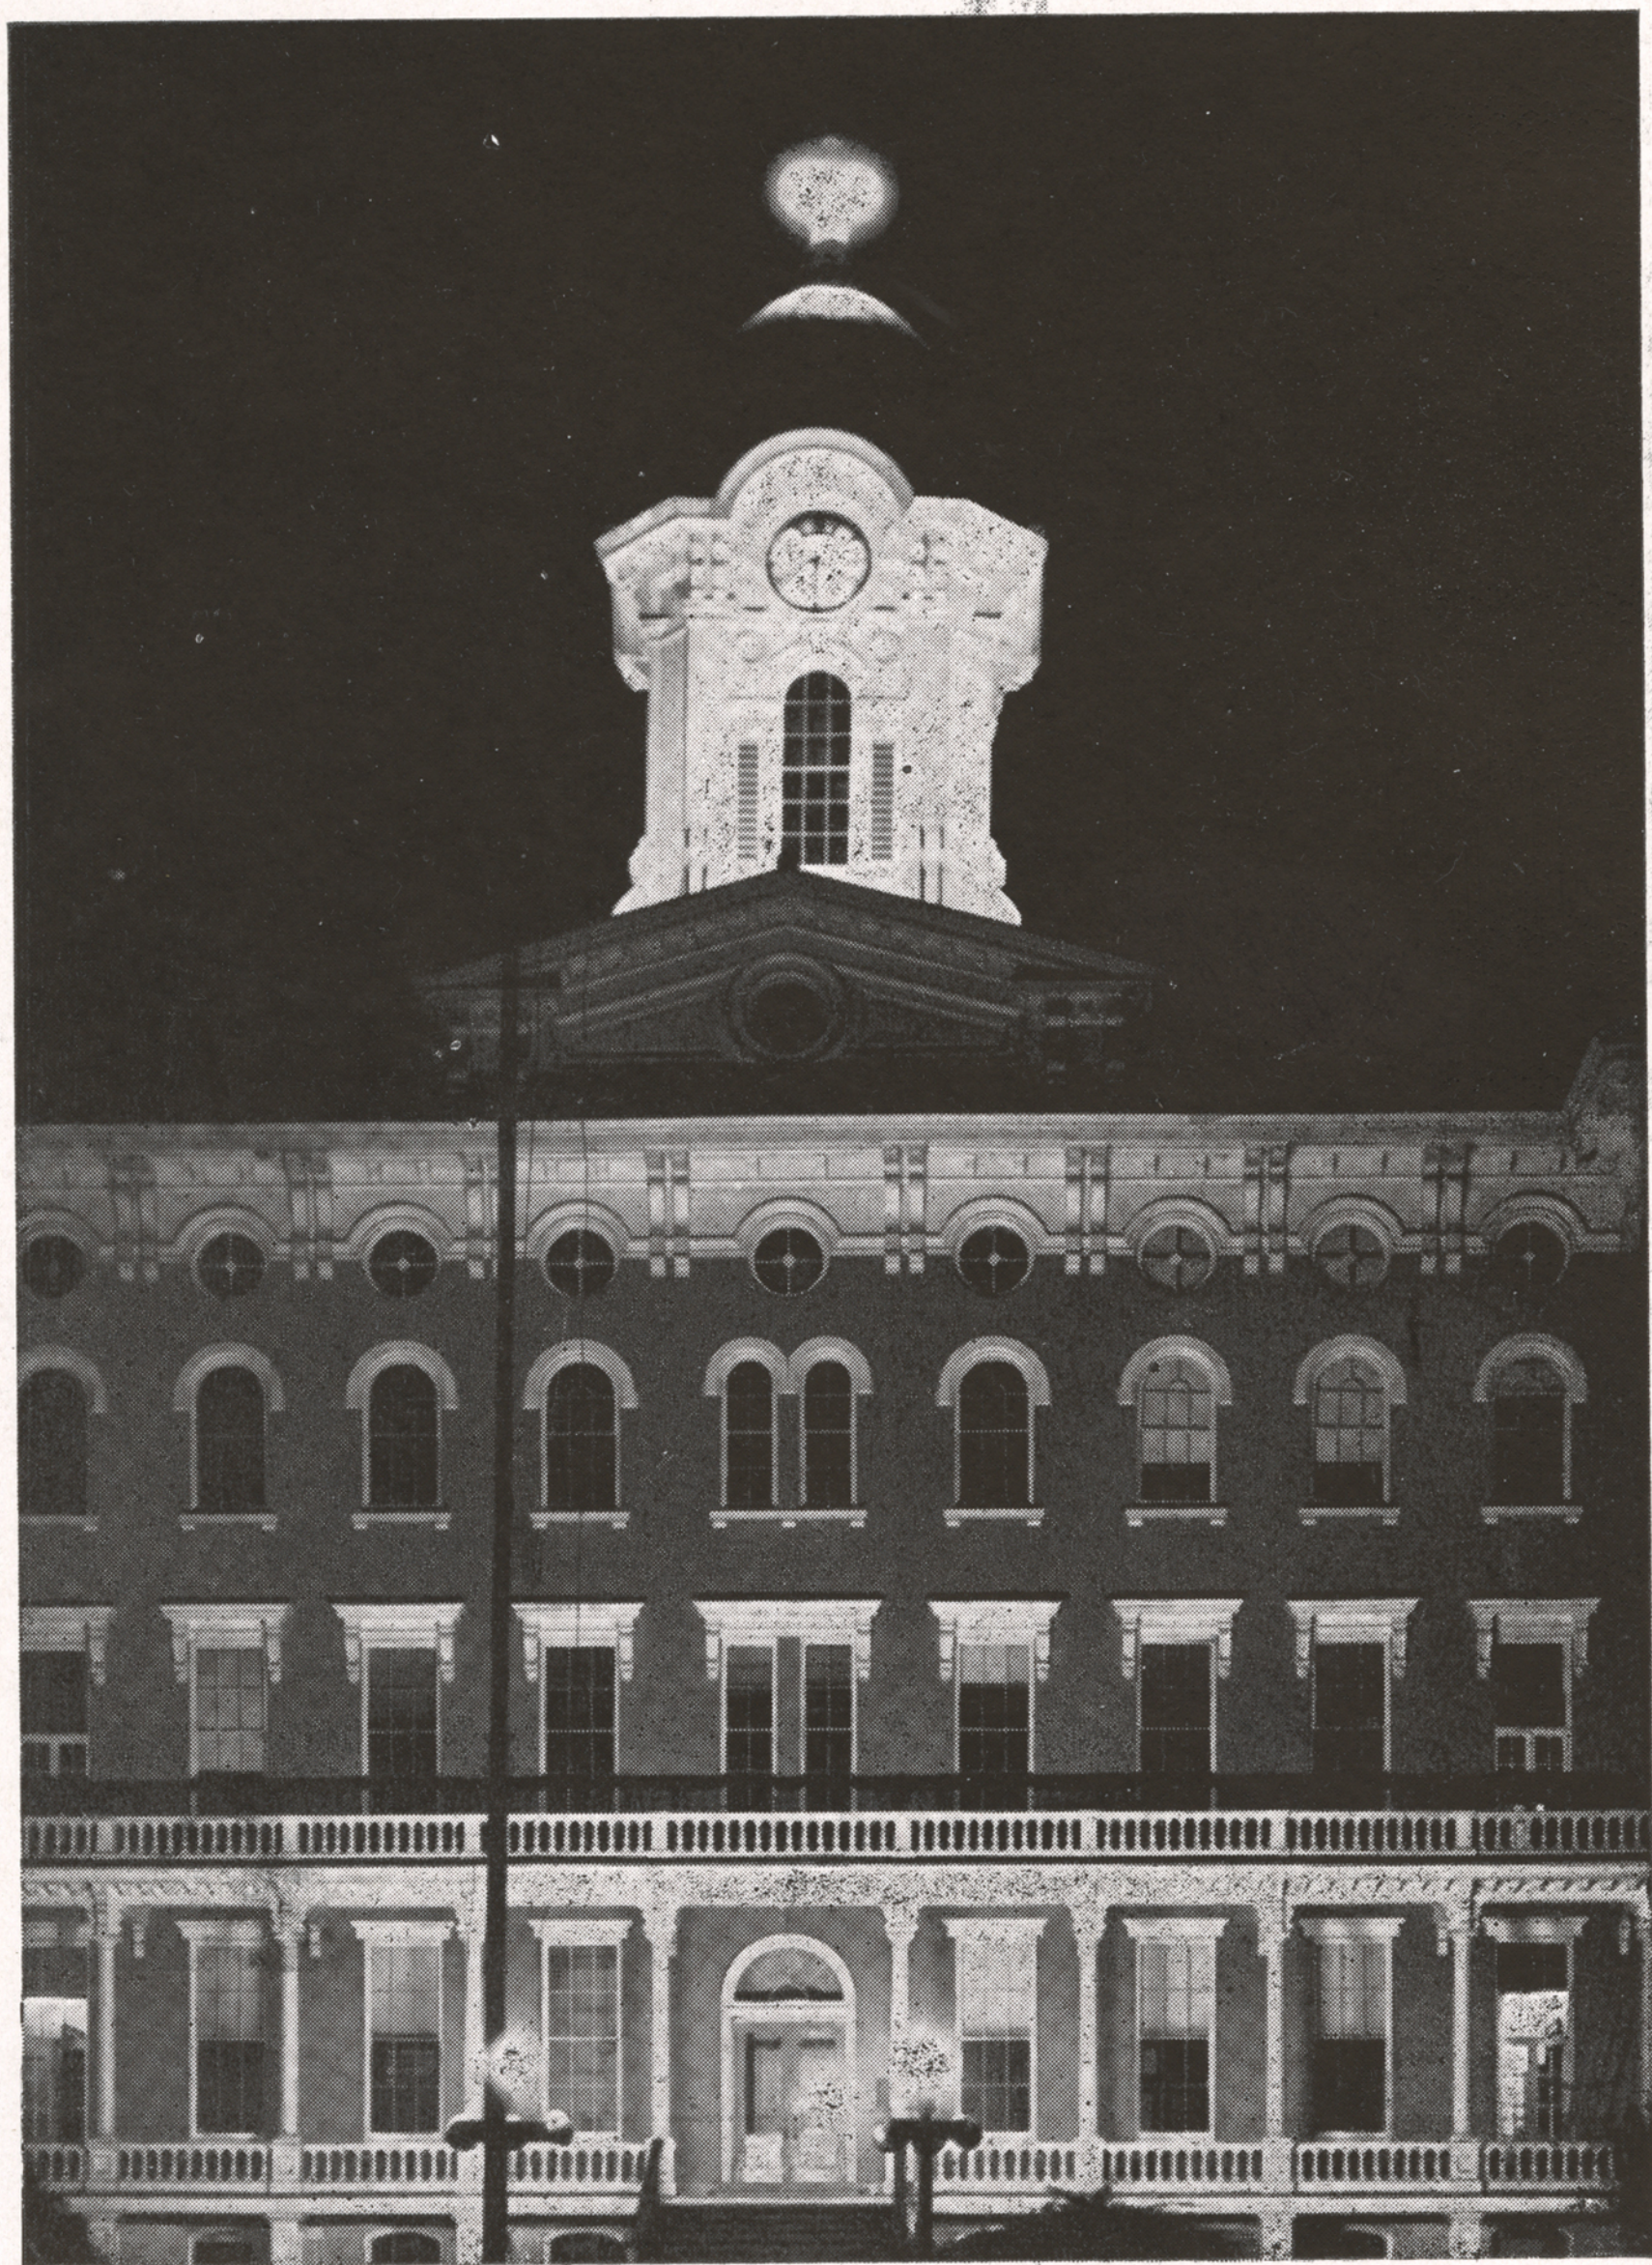

---Emily Dickinson

Dedication to Miss Stroud

*Round these, with tendrils strong as flesh and blood,
Dreams, books, are each a world! and books, we know,
Are a substantial world, both pure and good.
Our pastime and our happiness will grow.
There find I personal themes, a plenteous store,
Matter where in right voluble I am,
To which I listen with a ready ear.*

—Wordsworth

President R. W. Fairchild

*Ever shall tomorrow better
What today hath won;
Lead thy children, Dr. Fairchild,
On, forever on!*

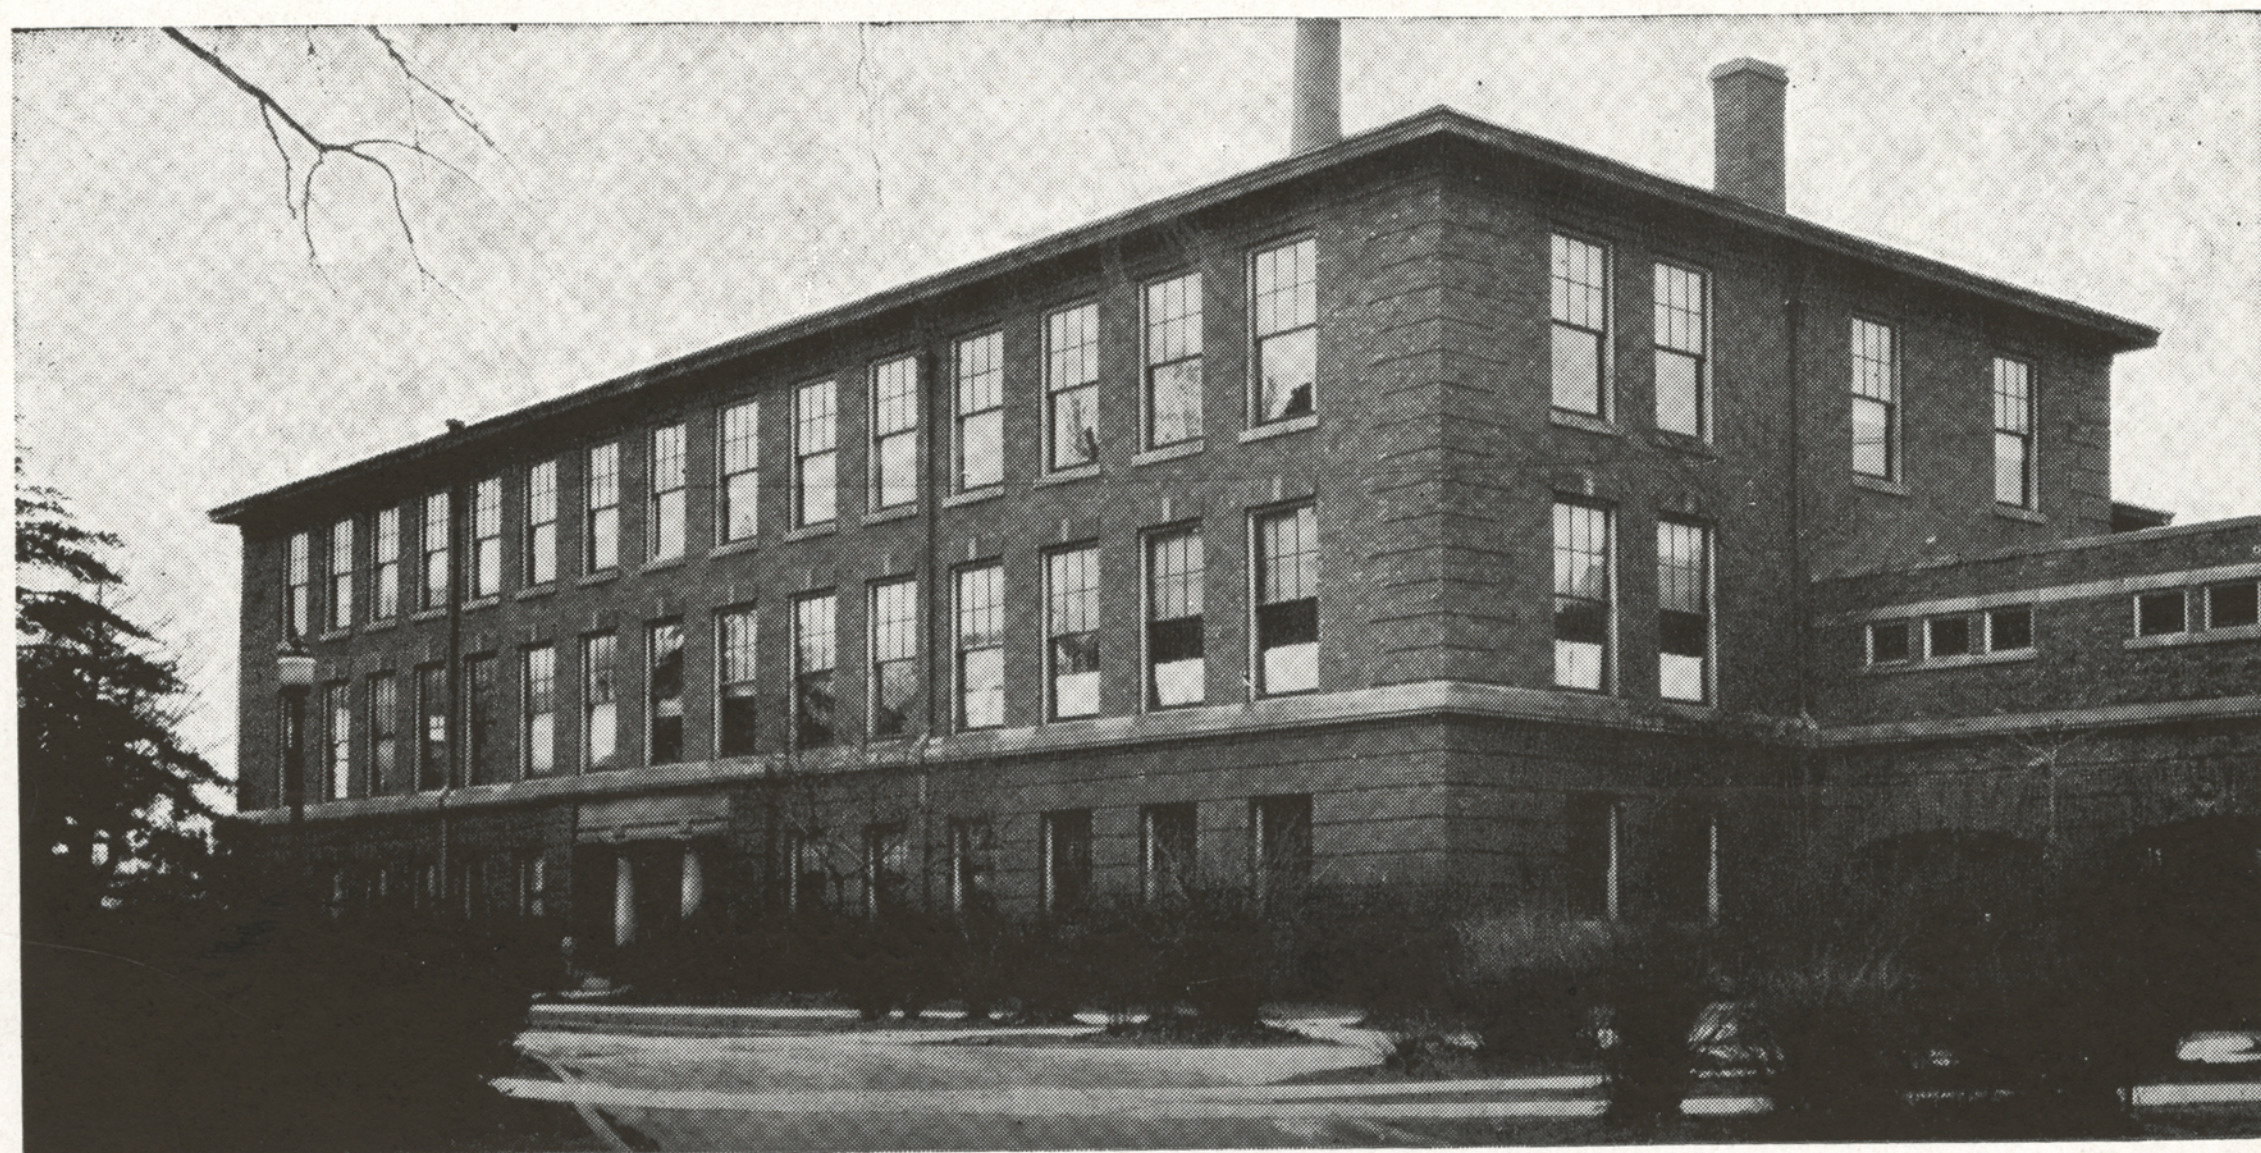

Dr. Sherman G. Waggoner

*That best portion of a good man's life,
His little nameless, unremembered acts
Of kindness and of love.*

---Wordsworth

Faculty Friendship

*We give and take in education
All for making school worth while;
Praised, admonished, feared and loved;
We meet each problem with a smile.*

*Sportsmanship, duty, cheerfulness,
To our action their life bends
And the goal we reach together---
Smiling, grateful, only friends.*

---Edward Schmillen

A. H. Larsen (Assistant Principal), Dr. Sherman Waggoner (Principal)

A builder builded a temple,
 He wrought it with grace and skill;
 Pillars and groins and arches—
 All fashioned to work his will,
 And men said as they saw its beauty,
 "It never shall know decay;
 Great is thy skill, O Builder!
 Thy fame shall endure for aye."

A teacher builded a temple
 With loving and infinite care,
 Planning each arch with patience,
 Laying each stone with prayer.
 None praised the unceasing efforts,
 None knew of the wondrous plan,
 For the temple the teacher builded
 Was unseen by the eye of man.

Gone is the builder's temple,
 Crumbled into the dust;
 Low lies each stately pillar,
 Food for consuming rust.
 But the temple the teacher builded
 Will last while the ages roll;
 For the beautiful, unseen temple
 Was a child's immortal soul.

Classes

*Here's to our classes,
Here's to our lasses,
Here's to the lads they adore.
Let mirth and gladness
Banish all sadness,
And as the days go by
You'll find us ready, and steady
Boosting for our "Old High"!*

Anderson, Brinegar, Whipple, Hamilton, Crumbaugh, Jacquat, Stroud (Sponsor).

Sept. 22—Well, here's to a year of great success! Today our officers were organized as the Senior Board. The officers, headed by Graham Whipple, are: Wendell Crumbaugh, Harriet Jacquat, Maurine Brinegar, Dick Anderson, and Betty Hamilton.

Sept. 27—The main idea of today's meeting was to make plans for the Freshman initiation. Nov. 15—It's quite a relief to have a personal maid and servant to carry our books from class to class. The tons of history and French books have been transferred to the freshman's waiting arms. The assembly program tomorrow will put an end to our very attentive servants. Nov. 16—The Supreme Court proved very lenient—an assembly program was the verdict.

Dec. 9—We met to elect the Clarion staff members. Geneva Meers seems to be the "it" girl around here. Dec. 16—Pictures and more pictures! Today we decided that Camera Craft Studios could have our contract for pictures. We hope they live through the ordeal. Mar. 17—The Senior Board selected suitable invitations for graduation which are to be submitted to the class vote next week. Mar. 25—A vote for the invitations was taken, and Dick Anderson is to take charge of collecting the orders within the next week. Apr. 11—Plans for Class Night were suggested, and various committees are starting work at once.

May 2—Representatives of the Senior Board and Miss Stroud met with the administration to make plans for Baccalaureate and Commencement. May 15—A Committee was appointed to meet with Miss Stroud, and make plans for the senior picnic to be held in June. May 26—The Clarions were distributed so that the seniors would have a chance to sign the Clarions belonging to the freshmen, sophomores, and juniors. May 27—Seniors were dismissed today, a week before the under classmen will be dismissed. We look forward to year-end activities—Betty Hamilton

*When, round the bowl, of vanished years
We talk with joyous seeming
With smiles, that might as well be tears,
So faint, so sad their beaming
While memory brings us back again
Each early tie that twined us,
Oh, sweet's the cup that circle then
To those we've left behind us!*

DEAR DIARY:

Sept. 22—Today we had our first class meeting. Our officers this year are: Wayne Nelson, president; Glen Johnson, vice-president; Barbara Orr, secretary; and Charles Mauney, treasurer. Miss Stephens is our sponsor. We are looking forward to an active year. There's no rest for junior class officers. Oct. 10—This afternoon various juniors tried out for the play, "The Poor Nut," which is to be given by the juniors in the near future. Oct. 13—The cast for the junior play was announced today. Will we have to work! There seems to be plenty of enthusiasm. Miss Scovell is to sponsor our play. The play will be "The Poor Nut"—a comedy as you may have guessed.

Nov. 1—Today as well as other days is a day for work. We have been working hard selling candy at the football games. We hope to make enough to give a Junior-Senior banquet and prom. Next year we'll be expecting the same from the sophomores. Nov. 19—The fatal night! We gave the play, "The Poor Nut," and it made quite a hit with the audience. Nov. 22—At the class meeting it was reported that we made a total of $73.95 on the play. Things are looking up. Maybe we can give that prom after all. The way we scheme is enough to put Shylock to shame. Jan. 3—We now have in the treasury the sum of $172.04. The committee was appointed to have charge of arrangements for the prom and banquet. Now things really do seem favorable for a successful prom.

Jan. 10—The president appointed a committee to select the ring and also a committee for the ring ceremony. Mar. 26—The juniors held a meeting today to decide upon rings selected by the ring committee. Apr. 4—Today the juniors signed for rings. The rings selected for the class are really good looking.—Barbara Orr

Fourth Row: Tudor, Oesch, Ward, Schantz, Lanman, Schaefer, Patterson, Bliss, Kid, Osburn, Perkins, Hyso, Cass, Doerr, Parlor, Lawrence, Kimble, Moore, Francis.

Sept. 20—The first meeting of the Sophomore class was held in the Study Hall today. The meeting was called by our sponsor, Miss Ebel. Officers for the year were elected. They are: Mary Ellen Orr, president; Mae Sylvester, vice-president; Jacques Evans, secretary; and Phyllis Satterfield, treasurer. There was a good attendance, as we all were eager to discuss plans for the coming year. "Great Expectations." Dec. 16—The class decided to hold its first party in Cook Hall gymnasium. Committees were appointed to be responsible for music and games, decorations, refreshments, and invitations. Dorothy Christen headed the music committee with Marilyn Anderson heading the committee for furnishing refreshments.

Jan. 21—We held our party and we believe that it was really a success. The gymnasium was decorated with a hammock of balloons which, when lowered, were immediately broken. Punch was served. The customers apparently needed no urging in regard to consumption of refreshments, since tales are told of one young gentleman who drank twelve glasses of punch. What a time we had! Jan. 28—The Sophomore class was asked today to sponsor a matinee dance and we decided that we should like to do so. Feb. 10—The class met today in the Study Hall. The matinee dance was again discussed and we decided that we would sponsor it and hold it on February 23. We decided to engage a good piano player for the occasion.

Feb. 23—Our matinee dance was well received judging from comments overheard in the halls. Everyone seemed to regret that it had to come to a close at four o'clock. Mar. 14—At today's meeting we decided to hold a picnic sometime early in May. May 19—What a picnic! Some people can eat! We bid goodbye to our sophomore standing, our sophomore habits, and aspects. We experienced a great year.—Betty Hammerlund

Oct. 7-14—The past week has been rather bothersome to us Freshmen, since we have just come through our initiation week—with our wits and scalps intact, we hope. Those high and mighty Seniors were after us; and all we heard throughout the week was, "Open that door or unlock my locker, Freshie." Nov. 1—Today we elected the following officers: James Sanders, president; Elizabeth Knecht, vice-president; Whitney Leanerd, secretary; and Hubert Fowler, treasurer. Jan. 20—We avenged ourselves on those Seniors today when we gave the Freshman assembly in the form of a play. Some of the characters were: sweet and simple Simon Sweet, Bruce Armstrong; Mrs. Sweet, Patty Weldon; little Tootsie Sweet, Beverly Minch; Percival Penn, Don McKinney; and the villain, Caesar Penny, Henry Stanberry. Feb. 10—The radio cast of which was partly made up of Freshmen, was chosen today. Elizabeth Knecht and Jean Carr will broadcast Wednesday.

Apr. 8—Today we held our class party at Cook Hall. Some time! Judging by the crowd, few freshmen missed it. Our hilarious classmen amused themselves by dancing and playing games. Mr. Ivens was our chaperon. June 4—The Freshmen read the last chapter of "The History of U. High Freshmen of 1938" by holding their annual picnic. Oh-h-hhh boy! There's nothing quite like the fragrance of camp fire smoke—except the scent arising from a charred wiener. And were we hungry! You guess! June 6—Just a parting remark of regret—we all owe thanks to Mr. Ivens, who has been an excellent sponsor during the past year.—Robert Mills

Activities

*Let us then be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate;
Still achieving, still pursuing
Learn to labor and to wait.*

---Longfellow

First row: Johnston, Yates, Maddio, Fleming, Sanders, Lamb.
Second row: Finley, Stephens, Wachob, Bunting, Herrington, Von Allmen.

October 6—Along with the Senior Board, members were picked from the Student Council to assist in making rules for initiating the Freshmen. November 3—A letter was received from the St. Anne Council stating that we are to pick a parliamentarian to send to the State Convention. Wesley Stephens was chosen to go as our delegate. November 17—Today we made some plans concerning the activity schedule. With the aid of the Athletic Association it was made possible for us to order the cheerleaders' uniforms and a megaphone for all the U. High games. December 17—The members of the Student Council, with the help of other enthusiastic students made the party at Cook Hall a success. Did Wesley Stephens think himself important when he found that he was chairman of the dish washing committee on this occasion! You just can't keep a good man down. January 19—Today we received a letter informing us that we should pick our delegate to send to the State Convention. We ordered cheerleaders' awards, too. February 2—We decided to hold meetings on the first and third Thursdays of the month. February 17—Today we chose delegates for the convention. Members chosen are: Betty Von Allmen, Navy Maddio, George Demetrulias, and Robert Fleming. Wesley Stephens was chosen to act as parliamentarian. April 1—The delegates left for the convention today, fun and education being anticipated. April 22—The All-School dance was attended by many students from University High School. Enthusiasm seemed to be at the exploding point all evening. Dale Lyman and his orchestra furnished the music. The party was planned by the Student Council with the help of Mr. Larsenan d Miss Stephens. May 26—The Student Council and Honor Society showed the Freshmen a good time by taking them around the grounds. The Freshmen attended our Awards Day Assembly and then were given refreshments to keep them from getting hungry. Student Council has had a very active year, and most of us feel that we have benefitted from having participated in student government.—Navy Maddio.

Student Council

Whipple, Lowell, Stephens, Ireland, Jacquat, Walton, Meers, Ellwood (Sponsor), Blakeman, Hamilton, Johnston, Vanneman.

Dec. 7—We took in seven new members today and gave them a very difficult examination to test their eligibility for entrance into the National Honor Society. Do you know not one of them could pass the test? All of them received shockingly low grades, but since we did not want to reject all of them, and could hardly hurt any of their feelings by just letting a few in, we had to accept them all. (The truth was we couldn't pass the exam ourselves.) Later that evening we held a formal initiation at the home of Marion Ireland. All the neophytes listened attentively to the stimulating address given by Mr. Larsen in which he encouraged them to keep up their successful beginning. Dec. 14—Today we elected this year's new officers. We chose Graham Whipple for President and Madeleine Lowell as Secretary-Treasurer. We are looking forward to a year full of activities with Mr. Ellwood as sponsor.

May 19—This is Freshman Day at U. High and we helped show the future freshmen around. We gave them pamphlets explaining about our buildings on the campus and giving general information about the school itself. We made these small books ourselves as a project. May 23—The three new Junior members, Reba Lane, Betty Von Allmen, and Robert Dunn, were taken in today. Our discussion at this meeting proved that we shall be very busy in finishing this year's work. Most important, the new members were formally initiated and a supper was held at the Campus Inn afterward. Our new associates and the faculty guests gave speeches. The rest of us sat with knocking knees and trembling hands for accompaniment, fearing that we might be called upon next.

May 26—The last meeting of the year was held today. We regret the fact, but a leavetaking is now necessary. Our only hope is that the prestige of Honor Society will be upheld next year. The Seniors leave saying, "Goodby, National Honor Society and Juniors, carry on! We'll come back and visit you next year."—Marion Ireland

HONOR SOCIETY

Hamilton (Sponsor), Johnston, Learned, B. Hamilton, Bischoff, Hammerlund.

Sept. 9—The first meeting of the Assembly Committee was called today by Miss Hamilton. The representatives are as follows: Betty Hamilton, senior; Joreece Johnson, student council; Charles Bischoff, Junior; Betty Hammerlund, sophomore; and Whitney Learned, freshman. Programs for the first six weeks were planned, and the money available for them was divided evenly between the first and second semester. Mr. Larsen gave announcements and Dr. Waggoner gave an idea of the aims of the school and the things which we should strive for during the year.

Oct. 14—The seniors publicly initiated the freshmen today, and at the end ordered the freshmen to give a program in assembly. Oct. 28—Professor A. R. Williams of the Illinois State Normal University faculty gave readings in the French-Canadian manner. Nov. 16—The Normal Community High School Band played for the assembly. Selections were also played by a brass quartet that is well known throughout the state. Jan. 16—Bob Singleton, a World War veteran, gave a very excellent talk on war. It took more than the allotted time, but everyone was eager to listen! He talked on the uselessness, the horror, and the futility of engaging in war.

Jan. 20—The freshmen finally presented a one-act play to the satisfaction of the seniors. The wily villain was killed by the great hero, and everyone lived happily ever after. Feb. 10—Miss Simmons a former U. High and later Wesleyan student, gave several vocal selections. Feb. 15—Dr. Hibler of the Illinois State Normal University faculty gave an excellent talk on youth. He told of the common mistakes that the modern youth is making, and how they may be corrected. He also gave some idea as to how we may get the most out of our life as young people. May 26—Awards Day, when all awards are given for achievement in the field of sports, both for boys and girls; and in scholarship awards were also given. Letters were presented in athletics and cups and plaques were presented to outstanding performers in other fields.—Charles Bischoff

ASSEMBLIES

Fogler (Sponsor), Knecht, Webb, Sylvester, Ivens, Crumbaugh, Larsen, Stephens.

Sept. 30—The first meeting of the Apportionment Board was called to order by the chairman, Mr. Fogler. The faculty members of the board are: Mr. Fogler, chairman; Miss Webb, secretary; Dr. Waggoner; Mr. Larsen; and Mr. Ivens. The student members are: Wendell Crumbaugh, senior representative; Wesley Stephens, student council; Glenn Johnson, junior representative; Mae Sylvester, sophomore representative; and Elizabeth Knecht, freshman representative. Nov. 19—The duty of the board is to divide the money received from activity fees so that each organization in need, may have its share. This year, in contrast to past practices, all the money received was apportioned.

Feb. 15—The meeting was called to order by the chairman. A report on the prices of properties to be bought for parties, and other uses around the school, was given by Wesley Stephens. The money to pay for these was taken from the fund which had accumulated in years when the fee money was not all spent. Jan. 16—Mr. Ivens moved that a committee be appointed to buy necessary equipment and also that money be given to wire the gym for better lighting. The motion was carried. The possibility of buying materials for the starting of a permanent camera club was discussed. The camera club would aid boys interested in photography, and also be of great value to the Clarion. Mr. Ivens suggested the materials that would be needed, and money required for providing the dark room.

Mar. 15—The meeting was called to order by the chairman, Mr. Fogler. Glenn Johnson moved that we give the money, as previously suggested, for the equipment needed to start the camera club. The motion stated that the materials be put under the care of the sponsor, and that any student might use them.—Wendell Crumbaugh

APPORTIONMENTS

Seated: Sleevar, Christen, Hammerlund, Brinegar, Parker, Sylvester, Scott, Lathrop, Ochs, Nenne.
Standing: Johnston, M. Lowell, G. Lowell, Farnham, Sorrenson, Ireland, Cunningham, Fuller, Fearheiley, Rupp, Blakeman, Wresinski.

Sept. 20—Prexy Joreece Johnston finally rallied the girls to order. It was quite an undertaking, considering the fact that we had free speech all summer. A few slip-ups, but we're rapidly getting underway. Sept. 27—Thalianites were truly argumentative tonight. The rustic qualities of Lake Bloomington as a possible site for our wiener roast was amply discussed. Natural environment and all that, you know—may the best man win!

Oct. 4—Lake Bloomington is to be the place. The fun begins next Saturday night at 6:00 P.M. Oct 25—Today our members were urged to try out for the friendly tussle with our good friends of the Rostrum. Don't all speak at once. Nov. 15—Girls have been selected to debate with Rostrum. We shall uphold the affirmative against our worthy opponents. The question is (get plenty of breath on reserve) "Resolved: That a Federal law should be enacted requiring the drivers of all automobiles to bring their vehicles to a stop at the grade crossings of all railroads and traction lines in this country, the constitutionality of or the difficulties involved in getting such legislation passed not to enter into the discussion."

Nov. 29—Election night again. New officers are: Maurine Brinegar, president; Marian Ireland, vice-president; Marianne Fearheiley, secretary; Jean Albee, treasurer; Madelyn Blakman, sargent-at-arms; and May Sylvester, reporter. Mar. 24—The Thalianites and the knights of the Rostrum held their first cooperative party. Quite a success! Thalian has challenged Rostrum again for the Ferd C. McCormick cup. May the girls win it back and regain the prestige of Thalian. May 10—Thalian's program before the assembly was well received. May 29—Another successful Thalian banquet was held at Maplewood and was reluctantly brought to a close.—Madeline Lowell

Sept. 20—Today Rostrum, the boys' debating society, held its first meeting of the year. By a unanimous decision, Mr. Fogler was chosen to be our new sponsor. Officers for the first semester are: Joe Bunting, president; Chuck Wullenwaber, vice-president; and Douglas Ricks, secretary-treasurer. Oct. 24—We held our first social event of the year tonight when we journeyed to Forest Park and enjoyed a bountiful feast consisting of wieners, marshmallows, and cider. Jan. 5—Probably the most important event of our first semester took place tonight when we held one of our semi-annual debates with Thalian. Rostrum defended the negative with Graham Whipple and Robert Lee Holley defending our cause. Rostrum, of course, came through victorious.

Jan. 13—Tonight we held a party in Old Castle—it proved quite successful. So ends our first semester—and we are confident that this will be a banner year. Feb. 2—Tonight we got off to a flying start in the new semester by holding a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fogler. Feb. 9—Graham Whipple was chosen president for the new semester. Feb. 16—We inaugurated a new system for Rostrum. President Whipple divided us into groups so that we may now hold competitive debates. At the end of the contest the team with the most points will be "coked" by the losing team.

Apr. 21—Tonight we held our final debate of the year with Thalian. The question for debate was: Resolved, That socialized medicine would contribute to human welfare. Graham Whipple and Bob Dunn represented Rostrum. May 2—Rostrum and Thalian held a social event tonight. It turned out to be so much fun that both societies hope to make it a common practice. June 1—the Grand finale to a successful year! Tonight we journeyed to a nearby metropolis and enjoyed a bountiful feast. Our school year comes to a close, and we bid farewell to a happy year with Rostrum. May next year's members carry on in perpetuating the traditional male superiority. Men—and Rostrum—must ever be dominant.—Douglas Ricks

ROSTRUM

Seated: Rowe, Ramsey, Harvey, Burns, Oblander, Winegarner (Sponsor), Noveck. Standing: Vanneman, Niehaus, Borden, Johnston, Bunting, Albee, Yates, Kerr, Carlock, Anderson, Smith.

Oct. 8—With one issue of "Ye Olde" Clarionette under our belts, we of the journalism class consider ourselves on our way. To produce a more professional atmosphere, since most newspapers have one or more editors, we chose Jean Albee and Clinton Vanneman as co-editors of the newsiest of the little newspapers, as expressed by Dr. Waggoner at our assembly program last week. Nov. 7—Jean, Clinton, Miss Winegarner, and student assistant, Miss Martin, attended the Illinois High School Press Conference at Champaign last week. The favorable comments showered on our paper by the critics provide more grounds for chest expansion.

Dec. 7—Under the direction of Mr. Kenyon S. Fletcher, we set up the page forms for our next issue of the Clarionette this afternoon. Imagine the ink smudges on the various parts of our anatomies when we finally got each piece of type in place. We certainly were ink spots. While we were working diligently, a Pantagraph reporter came and took our pictures. Dec. 21—Members of the staff and of Press Club went through the Pantagraph today. The knowledge gained from this trip and our experience at the printing office furnishes us with more thorough understanding of both the printing of the city newspaper and our own newspaper.

Jan. 15—Our guardian, Miss Winegarner, invited us to her home this evening to partake of ham loaf and "taters." Although Douglas Southgate lacked his usual enthusiasm and appetite that characterizes a growing boy at meal time (he'd had one meal before he came), the rest of us did justice to our hostess' delightful dinner. Jan. 25—The staff members for the first semester have retired from active reporting service. Formerly green, but seasoned veterans by now, are the journalists of the second semester staff. Chiefs of the group are Joreece Johnston and Richard Borden. Mar. 26—These new editors are certainly proving their worth. Every day in every way that paper is getting better and better.—Clinton Vanneman.

CLARIONETTE

Seated: Ochs, Berg, Forgue, Rupp, Patterson, Winegarner (Sponsor), Burns, Nenne, Orr, V. Harvey, Anderson, Beekman. Standing: R. Ramsey, M. Ramsey, Hayner, F. Harvey, Prust, Duffy.

Oct. 7—Do you wish to try your hand at newspaper writing or learn more about famous journalists? Then come to the meeting next Tuesday. Those were our instructions as we attended the Press Club meeting today. Oct. 11—Grand turnout at our first meeting! Press Club should really do things this year. Florence Harvey will be our president; Clinton Vanneman, vice-president; and Geneva Meers, secretary-treasurer. Nov. 8—Under Miss Winegarner's direction, our youngest members learned the art of newspaper writing, thus making their first contribution to the Clarionette. Dec. 21—Today we journeyed to the Pantagraph; we saw news go from teletype to paper boys.

Jan. 11—We held our first meeting of the new year today. We made plans for a Valentine party. Jan. 25—At today's meeting we had a visitor. John Boland, Pantagraph reporter, described for us his experiences in the journalistic world. I wonder if it encouraged any of our spirited members to become newspapermen? Feb. 8—Today's meeting was the first of the new semester. To carry on Press Club's affairs this semester we chose Mary Ellen Orr, president; Florence Harvey, vice-president; and Mildred Burns, secretary. Our program was given by Miss Anna Keaton, a member of the I. S. N. U. faculty, who spoke on "Early American Newspapers."

Feb. 11—Heart-shaped sandwiches, cocoa, and candy carried out the valentine atmosphere at the party tonight held at the home of Mary Ellen Orr. Feb. 22—Come on now, smile and look at the birdie. (We are getting our pictures taken for the Clarion). Mar. 8—Today we heard Mr. E. R. Johnson, of I. S. N. U., speak on "Having Fun with the High School Newspaper." Mar. 22—A photography enthusiast, Mr. A. W. Dragoo, of I. S. N. U., gave us an interesting talk on his hobby, photography. Apr. 17—At this meeting we made plans for a Press Club picnic. Apr. 29—Our year-end picnic, held today, turned out to be a "howling" success. Hereafter, journalists and wieners will be synonymous.—Florence Harvey

PRESS CLUB

First Row: Wachob, Mills, Farrel, Ramsey, Demetrulias, Rupp, Herrington, Atkins, Stevens, Williams, Schumacher. Second Row: Harbert, Lawyer, Beam, Eaton, R. De Pung, W. De Pung, Kimble, Karr, Orr, Powell, Hartley, Greenwood, Seibrasse, Vanneman, Blakeman. Third Row: Holley, Marsh, Lowe, Sylvester, Wresinski, Travier, Learned, Finley, Staker, Dycus, Lawrence, Copeland, Sanders. Standing: Peithman (Director), Schneeberg, Balthazor, Schildt, Sorrenson, Sleevevar, Farnham, Shantz, Lawrence, Burris, Wresinski, Gehrke, Cade, Bischoff.

Sept. 13—The band met for the first time this year in the Old Castle with our new leader, Mr. Peithman. About forty members were present. Sept. 29—"He doesn't know his own strength"—that's what they said of Mr. Peithman when he was trying to show the percussion section the correct way to beat a bass drum. He gave the drum a hard "wham" and the end of the drum stick went flying through the air. Was Mr. Peithman's face red! We wonder if that is the correct way! Oct. 8—We made our first public appearance at the football game with Peoria today. Did we feel proud!

Dec. 14—Mr. Peithman really swings a "mean" baton, but it gets results. Every day in every way, we're getting better and better. Jan. 15—Don't faint now, but Mr. Peithman calmly broke the news to us today that he hopes to have the band marching in uniform by next football season. Jan. 11—We have our numbers for the contest, and we certainly are practicing. Feb. 7—Several people are working hard for music letters and Mary Ellen Orr, for one, has completed all the requirements. Mar. 26—Our clarinet quartette and cornet quartette go to Gibson City today to play in the contest. Tom Wachob is playing a clarinet solo.

Mar. 27—Back home with results. "Chuck" Bischoff won first division in drums; clarinet quartette, second division; cornet quartette, second; Tom Wachob, clarinet solos, third division; and Mary Ellen Orr, second, French horn. Apr. 2—Our band is going to Gibson City today for the contest and let's hope we come back with banners flying. May 10—The contest is over, and what a relief! We placed in second division! And did we s'prise Mr. Peithman! June 1—Today we held our last practice—we're looking forward to a bigger and better band next year.—Lillian Harbert

BAND

Sept. 13—Today we held our first meeting of the year. Among other things, we got acquainted with our new director, Mr. Peithman. We think we are going to get along swell with our new maestro, but according to rumors, he means business when he raises the baton. Oct. 8—In the last few weeks, the orchestra certainly has improved. There are about forty members in the orchestra now. Mr. Peithman states that the beginners' orchestra is "coming along" rapidly now, too.

Nov. 19—We made our first public appearance tonight—our official debut—in playing for the Junior play, "The Poor Nut." The play was a success without any doubt; and we—well, we were a success, too—maybe. At least, we received several bouquets in language vases from friends who heard us. Dec. 1—Mr. Peithman explained the merit system to us today and told us how to get music letters. He also explained the "red check" system which everyone, I am sure, enjoyed. Dec. 22—Everyone looked sort of scared today, because we had to play scales and rhythm exercises alone for an A. It's queer how the wrong notes seem to pour forth even more on test days, when we try hard to be perfect.

Jan. 24—Mr. Peithman showed us how we could be lucky enough to get a music letter. Jan. 10—We're busy these days, so don't bother us. We certainly are working hard on our contest numbers. We'd like to get a banner or two for U. High. Feb. 14—Our rush season is on. Apr. 8—We played for the Senior play tonight. It was a great success. (The orchestra I mean, although the play was, too.) June 1—This is our last practice. We have enjoyed this year's work a lot and several of us are anticipating more fun next year with U. High's orchestra.—Lillian Harbert

ORCHESTRA

Satterfield, Keller, Schaefer, Miller, Shantz, Skaggs, Christen, Woods, Cruikshank, Morgan, Wilmoth, Marsh, Wachob, C. Compton, Arbogast, Cade, S. Compton, Mills, R. Holley, Lundborg, Davis, Orr, Stanbery, V. Holley, Goodier, Peithman (Director).

Oct. 1—With the addition of Mr. Harlan W. Peithman to the music department of "dear old" U. High, the stride of the school's musical organizations has progressed at a rapid speed. The feminine contribution of voices, made by three girls' choruses, and the boys' chorus, have produced many pleasant effects thus far. Nov. 19—Tonight the girls' chorus and boys' octette displayed their newly acquired ability when they sang for the Junior Play. Dec. 3—By this time the members of U. High choruses have practically memorized the tactics of Mr. Peithman—and can he get the results!

Dec. 16—WJBC was honored this evening at 5:00 P.M. by having as broadcasters one of our small mixed choruses which sent the spirit of Yule-tide to all, by singing a group of well-known Christmas carols. Dec. 22—The last performance of U. High songsters before the Christmas holidays took place in Capen Auditorium at noon today, when they sang for the Women's League of I. S. N. U. Feb. 3—Today we sang three selections for Community High's assembly. They must have gone over pretty well (or maybe it was Mr. Peithman's winning way during "An Old-Fashioned Garden"). At any rate, we were encored for another number. Mar. 3—Again the voices of U. High's songsters were heard as they made their second broadcast from the rehearsal hall in Old Castle.

Mar. 17—So many N. C. H. S. students had commented on the numerous "MacDonald" voices in our chorus that we had to give our own assembly a treat in Capen Auditorium. The home folks seemed to like it and our friends on the other side of Main Street seemed to enjoy it, too. Mar. 24—The mixed chorus supplied the entertainment for assembly today, and on March 31, the sextets tested their achievements by singing several selections. They were well received.—Verla Holley

MIXED CHORUS

First row: Burns, Wilmoth, Skaggs, Miller, Mercier, Rupp, Holley, Beam, Demetrulias. Second Row: Balthazor, Weldon, Morgan, Wilson, Orr, Goodier, Glasener, Davis, Schaeffer, Lowell. Third Row: Curry, Woods, Cruikshank, Marsh, Christen, Lundborg, Shantz, Keller.

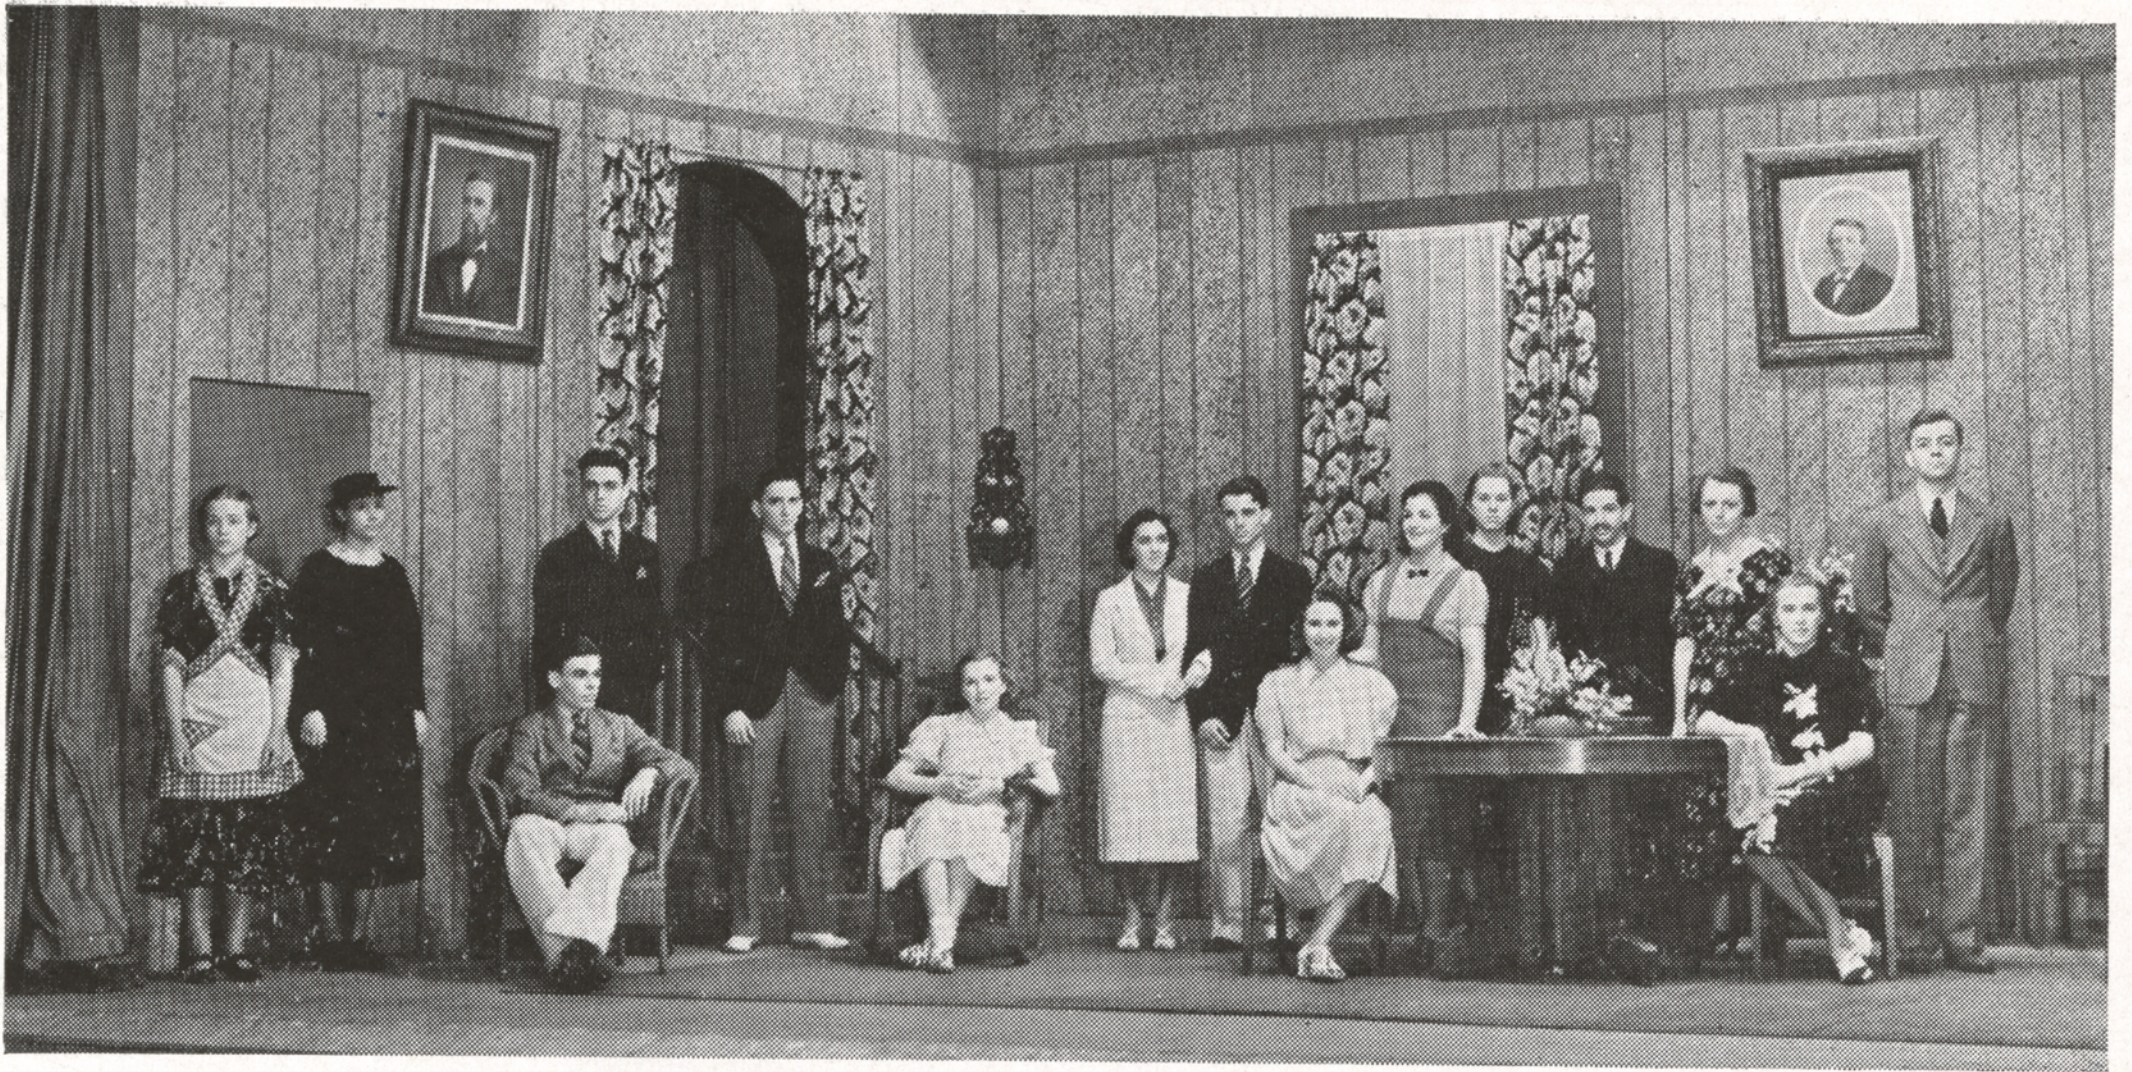

Oct. 5—The feminine vocalists of U. High this year will serve a dual function in that they will participate in the Mixed Chorus as well as in the special Girls' Chorus. One other thing that rather closely relates these two musical organizations is the fact that Mr. Peithman directs the activities of both. In a musical way, events should swing along smoothly for the girls this year. We look forward to plenty of work—and consequent results. Nov. 19—Tonight the girls' chorus combined with the boys' octette and demonstrated some of their newly acquired ability when they sang for the Junior Play. The Juniors acquitted themselves very creditably and we hope as much can be said of us. With a few more practices, these two groups should be able to combine their talents quite well. Dec. 16—Some of the girls in the special chorus helped to complete a small mixed chorus which sent the spirit of Yule-tide over the ether today as they presented a special broadcast over WJBC at 5:00 P.M. in the form of several selections, most of which were well known Christmas carols. We're gradually taking our rightful place in the world.

Feb. 3—Today we joined with the mixed chorus in singing for Normal Community High's assembly. We evidently make quite a hit with our friends from across the highway, judging from the applause. Mar. 17—Because we were successful in presenting an assembly program for Normal High, perhaps, we were asked to present an assembly for "the home folks" today. If practice makes perfect, we should be well on our way to perfection—Mr. Peithman seems to think we're still on our way as yet.

Mar. 31—Today, sextets from the two choruses sang several selections before assembly. Apr. 16—At today's practice Mr. Peithman dealt with separate parts of the chorus individually. May 9—Today we held our group meeting of the year. Ours has been a busy year, but most of us believe that our efforts have been justified.

—Verla Holley

GIRLS CHORUS

Seated: Crumbaugh, Harvey, Ireland, Lowell. Standing: Rowe, Shantz, Cade, Stephens, Johnston, Whipple, Bair, Oblander, Vanneman, Brinegar, Ricks.

Feb. 7—The cast was picked for the senior play, "New Fires." Douglas Ricks again played a fatherly role as Stephen Santry, and Madeleine Lowell is his society-bred wife. Billy and Phyllis played by Wendell Crumbaugh and Florence Harvey cut capers, and tease their older brother, Dick, and his bride, Eve, played by Graham Whipple and Joreece Johnston. A budding romance is supplied by Marian Ireland as the sophisticated daughter, Olive, and Wesley Stephens as young Dr. Gray. Members of the supporting cast are Ruth Rowe, Mary Leah Shantz, Clinton Vanneman, Walden Cade, Maurine Brinegar, Nona Bair, and Suzanne Oblander.

Feb. 19—Our directors had some difficulty in convincing Douglas that an American author wouldn't have a French accent, but they finally accomplished the feat. Feb. 23—Madeleine Lowell was absent all week and Miss Thomassen has been re-living childhood days by taking her place in rehearsals. Feb. 27—Wendell and his car deserve special mention for taking the cast home after rehearsals. His Chevy resembles a can of closely packed sardines most nights. Mar. 8—"There is not going to be any more hard candy brought to practices." Miss Thomassen has decided our lines don't sound so well when we "crunch" between sentences. Mar. 12—The "gravy affair" of the first act was rehearsed for the first time tonight, with all accompanying gestures. Wendell and Florence expressed their glee in a boisterous manner.

Mar. 22—The starlight nights seem to attract the cast to the windows and doors, but they don't help people to make their cues. April 3—Charles Compton should be able to obtain a place with a troop of acrobats after his extensive practice screwing light-bulbs atop a twenty-five foot ladder. April 6—Clinton Vanneman can't seem to get used to his newly-acquired mustache. Let's hope he isn't seized by a sneezing fit on the fatal night. April 8—Butsling and rushing preceded the rising of the curtain. However, all last minute anxieties were forgotten in the success of the production.—Joreece Johnston

NEW FIRES

Seated: Mills, Mauney, Wresinski, Bischoff, Maddio, Johnson, Lane, Knowles, Million, Finley. Standing: Dunn, Ellison, Foster, Landis, Keefe, Adams (Student Teacher), Allen (Student Teacher), Scovell (Director), Nelson, Hubbard, Fairchild, Selders, Schneeberg.

Oct. 13—Today we had tryouts for our Junior play, "The Poor Nut," which is going to be directed by Miss Scovell. Charles Bischoff has the lead as the "Poor Nut," and playing opposite him is Navy Maddio. In the supporting cast are Reba Lane, Jay Foster, Charles Mauney, Robert Dunn, Bob Keefe, Eleanor Wresinski, Kathleen Knowles, Patricia Million, and Wayne Nelson. The rest of the class will demonstrate their acting ability in the cheering section. Oct. 27—Finally, we have succeeded in getting the first act of the play "under our hats." At practice tonight we adjourned to our respective study rooms and diligently attempted to become familiar with the second act.

Oct. 29—Although there is only one "Poor Nut" in the play, I think there is more than one person in the cast who feels like a poor nut after having recited certain lines a dozen or more times. Nov. 5—We had play practice this morning (Saturday). Two of the members of the cast walked onto the set at 11:00—they were not the early birds and did not get the worm—instead, they got the "works." Nov. 15—Now we know the entire play. Next Friday, we plan to enlighten this hitherto unknowing high school as to the dramatic talent of the Junior class.

Nov. 17—We had dress rehearsal this evening and it was surprising how those lines, which have been mumbled from the mouths of the players as they go to and from classes, fit together and form a rollicking comedy, full of college wise-cracks. Nov. 19—We gave the play this evening, and it was a great success—we hope! At least the audience affirmed our belief by their bursts of applause. It's been hard work for the last month, memorizing lines, and learning to play character parts through good acting. The final curtain—How I wish we could start all over again! It was hard work before the final curtain was drawn, but since it's over—we'd like to be looking forward to that curtain again.—Reba Lane and Charles Bischoff

THE POOR NUT

Seated: Deaton, Maddio, Goodier, Mills, Knowles, Bischoff. Standing: Demetrulias, Ricks, Ramsey, Shantz, Brinegar, Johnston, Harvey, Lane, Whipple, Bair, Stephens, Rupp, Ireland, Orr, Scott.

Oct. 19—Here we are, starting out on another year of exploration. It's the last for some of us, I'm sorry to say. We gained some necessary impetus by checking out some play books and looking for possible plays that we might give. Nov. 16—A membership committee was appointed to seek out those aspiring to dramatic heights. Then we began to build air-castles about going to Chicago to see Helen Hayes in Victoria Regina. Dec. 22—This afternoon, we had an interesting make-up demonstration. Yours truly looked quite a little like an Indian, from close range. (You know how stage make-up looks without the benefit of stage lights.)

Jan. 17—We're getting on in the world. Wednesday, January 26, we're going to present a radio play. We began work on it today at a special meeting. Jan. 18—Navy Maddio, a clever little Junior, was elected vice-president. She should get results from the male element of the club, at least. Jan. 26—We presented our first radio play, "The Casting Bureau," revealing how much more effective a person can be by acting natural rather than artificial. Feb. 15—The camera was broken today by the club's own inimitable manner of posing for the Clarion picture. Guess they should have taken our picture last.

Mar. 2—The play, "Viennese Serenade," gave us even more experience in broadcasting. Some fun—this radio play work! Every one seems to enjoy it. Mar. 29—Setting and costumes for the seniors were studied, and we had a lot of fun in the scene shop helping paint sets for the senior play. May 6—Today we had a weiner roast. Graham Whipple proved to be the outstanding consumer, but didn't win a prize, unless a case of indigestion could be termed as such. May 17—Today we acquired our final bit of "larnin" by hearing talks on two plays that have been a success in New York, "Alien Corn" and "Cherry Orchard." Today's meeting served as the grand finale of a very active and successful year for the members of Theatre Guild.—Joreece Johnston

THEATRE GUILD

First Row: Knowles, Orr, Scott, Sylvester, Johnston, F. Harvey, V. Ramsey, Ireland, Hammerlund, R. Ramsey, Minch, Evans. Second Row: Keltner, Scovell (Sponsor), Deaton, Shantz, Price, Demetrulias, Hamilton, Bair, Tallon, Mills, Weldon, V. Harvey. Third Row: Bischoff, Anderson, Brinegar, Keller, Rupp, Maddio, Lane, Ricks, Stephens, Whipple, Karr, McKinney.

Sept. 15—At today's meeting, the Dramatic Club, presided over by our sponsor, Miss Scovell, decided to divide the members into two groups, the Freshmen and Sophomores making up one group and the Juniors and Seniors making up the other. By this division, the capabilities of the students can be more easily adapted to dramatic activities for the year. It was decided that the two groups would cooperate in allowing special talent in either group to be used by the other. Oct. 5—Mae Sylvester was elected to lead the Freshman-Sophomore division of the Dramatic Club and Joreece Johnston was elected to lead the Junior-Senior group. Nov. 2—Today the Freshman-Sophomore group began work on a one-word question and answer play, "Jerry Joins In."

Dec. 7—Today Miss Scovell talked to the club on sound effects for plays. Just wait until we put on our first radio play—some of today's information will come in handy. Jan. 12—The Junior-Senior element of the club began work on a radio play, "The Casting Bureau." Among those participating are Douglas Ricks, Marian Ireland, and Maurine Brinegar. Feb. 10—Today the story of Jane Addams' Hull House was portrayed in a radio play, Florence Harvey, Gene Woods, Madeleine Lowell, and Mildred Burns taking the leading parts.

Mar. 1—The cameraman showed unusual courage and faith in the durability of his camera today as he took a picture of the Dramatic Club. Apr. 19—Today the club, thinking of celebrating, in some way, the year's activities, elected a committee to make plans for a year-end picnic. Rumors are spreading that an outing in the form of a wiener roast has been decided upon. May 14—Today we met to decide definitely upon a date for our picnic. It was voted to hold the picnic next week. We can't wait much longer. May 26—Today—and this is the last, also—we drew the year's activities to a culmination by holding a wiener roast.—Mae Sylvester

DRAMATIC CLUB

Seated: Hamilton, Deaton, Davis, Stephens (Sponsor), Stephens. Standing: Whipple, Walton, Ricks, Vanneman.

Oct. 27—There was a general discussion of the organizations working under the Community Chest. After today's lively discussion, an active year is anticipated. Nov. 10—Douglas Ricks gave a very interesting talk about his visit to the negro orphanage. May there be more of this sort of participation on the part of club members. Dec. 8—Following the pattern set at last meeting, Kendrick Walton talked on the Sino-Japanese conflict. Whew! Some people really pick on tough subjects. There seemed to be plenty of interest in tonight's talk, consequently another talk for next week will be planned. Dec. 22—Walden Cade discussed the Spanish civil war.

Jan. 12—Graham Whipple reviewed the special session of Congress. Feb. 19—Wesley Stephens discussed the United States' foreign policy. This policy was discussed in regard to Japan, in particular. Tonight's talk was quite appropriate, we thought, in view of the fact that Japan had been dealt with in an earlier talk. Mar. 2—Esther Deaton spoke on the consumer and the government. Mar. 9—We deviated from the customary procedure followed at meetings of the past by leaving the club room and visiting the McLean County Poor Farm. Don't worry—we'll have plenty to talk about at our next meeting. The visit was very interesting and educational—a new experience for most of the club members and a worth while one.

Mar. 29—Mr. Myer, editor of the American Observer, was our guest at today's meeting. A dinner was given in his honor. He made a very interesting talk on "World Events." Apr. 15—Today we continued the policy of student participation. The participation was conducted on a wholesale basis today, however, as we had a group discussion on current events in the United States. May 23—We held our last meeting and made plans for next fall. Our year has been full of varied and interesting social science meetings.—Esther Deaton.

SOCIAL SCIENCE

First Row: Harvey, S. Compton, C. Compton, Fearheiley. Second Row: J. Duffy, Sorrenson, Farnham. Third Row: V. Duffy. Standing: McAvoy (Sponsor), Carlock, Whipple, Cade, Horton.

Sept. 23—Today we held our first meeting of the school year. Our officers are: Graham Whipple, president; Marianne Fearheiley, vice-president; and Elaine Lowe, secretary. The addition of many new members gave us the largest roster since the origin of the club five years ago. Oct. 14—This, in the opinion of many of the club members, was the best meeting of the year. We held a wiener roast at Maplewood Country Club. A great mystery developed—who broke the cider jug? Oct. 28—Today we gained a new respect for the Science Club by seeing Professor Dragoo's moving picture of the Grand Canyon and his lecture on the work of Major Powell, after whom our club is named.

Nov. 18—Our radio crew had a "shocking" experience while fooling with an induction coil. Probably one of Compton's ideas! Dec. 16—End of a period of successful work-meetings. Jan. 13—Members were relieved from work by seeing a double-feature movie of the educational type. A chimpanzee (which looked like Clark Gable) stole the show. Everybody was so hilarious that the meeting broke up early. Feb. 9—Several of our members went to a meeting of the McLean County Junior Academy of Science. Graham Whipple spoke on his model airplane as a representation from University High School. Feb. 17—As a result of the above entry, Whipple gave a speech and demonstration to Normal High's Science Club.

Mar. 12—Horton brings our several square yards of cardboard in his new periodical chart of the atoms. At the March meeting of the McLean County Junior Academy of Science, Virgil Duffy gave a fine talk and demonstration on how to make sections of twigs. At the April meeting of the County Academy, Bob Stillman talked on raising animals. Apr. 30—Everyone is in a last-minute rush to get projects done for the State Academy of Science. Many of us have rather high hopes, but don't count your chickens before . . . ! May 23—The year's activities are at an end, and everyone will miss Science Club.—Graham Whipple

SCIENCE CLUB

Ho, hum! So tired! And so is every other socialite who attended tonight's gala event. Of course, Dear Diary, it's the all-school party that I'm speaking of. It was, without question, a rather sizable portion of the student body, if someone happens to ask you, Diary. Did I have a fine time? Just a moment I'll tell you all about it. It's like this—no one could help having the time of his life tonight, because there was something to suit the fancy of everyone. There was dancing for the light-footed. No! No! Not Nick—it was Larry Lonney and his rhythm kings who furnished the music. Oh, my feet ache! But I suppose you want to know all about it. Well, there were games of all kinds for those who didn't feel inclined to dance. There was punch to quench the thirst that always accompanies dancing to Larry Lonney's music. Everything, I tell you! Yes, Diary, even a Santa Claus. Certainly he handed out presents to all of us. Of course, they weren't expensive, but the spirit of giving accompanied every one of them.

Why am I so tired? Such a foolish question, Diary. You see, first of all, I danced to a number of currently popular swing tunes. Then I rested by taking a severe trouncing at ping pong. After dancing to a medley of torrod fox trots, I tried my hand at cards and checkers—and then I decided to dance a while. And you have the nerve to wonder why I'm tired. I tell you, there was not a dull moment all evening. And if your curiosity is finally satisfied, I believe that I should conclude, before I seek refuge under my covers, by saying that all who braved the cold winds of this cold December night were certainly rewarded in attending what many believe to be the greatest social event of this school year.

—Betty Hamilton

SCHOOL PARTY

Oct. 6—The Green and Gold Home Economics Club, which has for its purpose better relations between the home and the school, met and elected officers today. Those elected were: Mae Ramsey, president; Esther Deaton, vice-president; Madeleine Lowell, secretary; and Evelyn Stroud, treasurer. Esther Deaton was chosen as representative to the Rockford convention. Oct. 19—It was called to the attention of club members that any girl who is interested in the club may join, providing she has had a year of home economics. Any other girl interested in the club must have a special project approved before she can become a member. At this meeting, too, the banquet committees were appointed by the president. Nov. 3—The report on the state convention at Rockford was given.

Dec. 1—We learned at today's meeting that our club had received a certificate of affiliation in the National Home Economics Club. Shall we start wearing feathers in our hats? Mary Shantz deserves a feather for writing a club song. I almost forgot to tell my diary that new members were initiated at this meeting. Dec. 15—Today we had our Christmas party and what fun! Dec. 17—No one can say that we haven't done our part today, for we washed cups for the all-school party. For once we got a "kick" out of washing dishes!

Jan. 18—We were fortunate in being able to hear Miss Ellis give a talk on the Basque country in France. Everyone was interested. Mar. 2—Today we held our annual club banquet. We are proud that it was such a success. Spring was used as the theme of the banquet. Miss Clara Sparks, state supervisor of Home Economics, at Springfield, was our speaker for the evening. She spoke on "Opportunities for Girls Trained in Home Economics." Apr. 27—We had a review on Spring styles. May. 11—Today we held our annual feast. Home economics girls can really cook!—Mae Ramsey

Sept. 24—Today we held our first meeting. It was encouraging to have forty members present. We elected officers for the new semester. The new officers are: Ether Deaton, president, Wesley Stephens, vice-president; Dorothy Gravitt, secretary; and Elaine Mock, treasurer. Oct. 8—We discussed possible programs for the year. The suggestion of a trip through Beich's candy factory seemed to be popular with the group as a whole. Oct. 22—Mr. Admire talked to us on "Before the Personal Application." His speech was well received.

Nov. 5—At today's meeting a play was presented by members of the Commerce Club. I didn't know we had dramatic talent. Nov. 19—Today we discussed plans for a Commerce Club party. Everybody seems to be in favor of one. Dec. 3—What fun practicing on a skit for the party! Dec. 10—We held our party in Cook Hall and judging from the general hilarity it went over in a big way. Seventy-five members were present. Rae Worthington and his accordion made music, and he really knows how to handle that box! One of our members showed that she had other than commercial ability when she sang for the group "The One Rose." Dec. 17—At today's meeting we had a Christmas program. Elaine Mock gave a reading. Oh yes! I almost forgot to mention, and this is important, that Miss Webb treated. There is a Santa Claus!

Jan. 14—Going educational now. We had a dictaphone demonstration today. Miss Webb explained how it worked and then Mr. Zelip talked about contest work and some of his techniques. Jan. 17—U. High grad, Bob Stephens, talked to us—was I proud? Feb. 25—Officers elected today for the new semester are: Wesley Stephens, president; Betty Hamilton, vice-president and program chairman; Phillis Satterfield, secretary; and Mae Ramsey, editor of our paper. Apr. 13—All U. High students received copies of our paper today. May 13—Year's last meeting.—Wesley Stephens

COMMERCE CLUB

Seated: Fearheiley, Holley, Werner, Anderson, Maddio, Mills, Harbert, Whipple, Brinegar, Deaton, Keller, Standing: Ogle (Sponsor), Karr.

Sept. 28—Today a group of art "addicts," intoxicated with hopes for an art club for University High School, went in an organized group to discuss the possibilities of organizing a club with Dr. Waggoner. We received heartening suggestions and a few promises from him. Oct. 17—Since our last meeting much has been accomplished. Miss Ogle has been chosen as our sponsor. Time for meetings has been set for the first and last Tuesday of each month. Meetings will be at 3:00 o'clock. Oct. 28—At this, our first official meeting, we elected Verla Holley, president; and Navy Maddio, secretary-treasurer. We decided that each member (and just think—we are all charter members) would complete an art project for the year.

Nov. 9—At this meeting we decided to choose a name for our club. We chose to call our new club the "Modern Crafts Club." Dec 14—At this meeting we discussed plans for the year's activities. Aside from individual projects, we decided to invite to our meetings, guest speakers interested in various phases of art. It's a kind of a thrill for most of us when we realize that we are setting patterns for a club that may exist for a long time for future U. High art "addicts."

Jan. 16—Today we met and discussed our projects. Some are getting on very well, while others are not availing themselves of the opportunity to do creative work in art. Feb. 12—Today we met and discussed plans for taking in new members. If our infant, the "Modern Crafts Club," is to grow up we must provide it with nourishment in the form of new members. Mar. 26—Today we met and demonstrated our work on our projects. We didn't know we did have so much talent in our ranks. Apr. 14—Today we held our last meeting of the year. We compared work done, criticized each other's work and put a nightcap on the year's activities. We feel honored in having something to do with organizing the "Modern Crafts Club." Let "carry on" be the motto of next year's members.—Ruth Cunningham

Returning to his country, may relate

Nov. 12—We had our first basketball practice today. Prospects aren't very bright with only two lettermen, Captain Guritz and Major Horney, returning. Dec. 3—"Old" U. High started their basketball campaign in a most spectacular fashion by defeating McLean 25 to 5. Jan. 18—Coach O'Connor has finally succeeded in finding a smooth working quintet. He has placed Guritz at center, Dunn and Keighin at forwards, and Horney and Keltner at guards. Johnson is alternating with Dunn and Keighin at forward and sharing the guard position. With many promising sophomores and freshmen such as: Armstrong, Wullenwaber, Stanberry, Goff, Herr, and Smith, Coach O'Connor is looking forward to a successful season next year. Feb. 18—Next week the squad will travel to Chenoa to enter the Regional Tournament. Feb. 27—The Green and Gold snipers have been going strong, for now they play Fairbury for the Regional Tournament championship. The cagers took most delight in defeating Bloomington High's purple raiders 26 to 16. The Green and Gold warriors ended a successful season in the tournament, although they were nosed out by Fairbury in the final to lose the championship. A summary of the season's games follows:

Seated: Armstrong, Ellis, Wells, Gregory, A. Parlor, Yates, Fairchild, Ward, Frost, Demetrulias. Kneeling: Cass, Foster, Sanders, Rossitter, Keltner, Gardner, Keefe, Poplawski, E. Parlor, Schneeberg, Hallam. Standing: Smith, De Pung, Ivens, Ramut, Stanley, Stanbery, Dunn, Horney, O'Connor (Coach), Hubbard, Bunting, Guritz, Landis, Finley, Evans, Peyton, Herr, Poppen (Assistant Coach).

Sept. 7—There were long drills on blocking, tackling, and running through plays. Such is the life of a football player! This is Labor Day, but you wouldn't know it. We practiced about five and one-half hours. Sept. 12—About fifty eager kids gave up their daydreaming and came onto the field to learn how to play football. Burton O'Connor is our new coach and hails from Iowa where the tall corn grows. The team is beginning to shape up. Although it is very light, there will be a lot of speed in it. We received new plays and drilled on them for several hours every day. We practiced from 3:00 to 6:00 or 6:30. We're beginning to get rid of sore muscles, and everything looks great.

Sept. 16—New jerseys, nifty sox, and helmets were given out to the first twenty-five men. There was no practice for the first team, but the freshman-sophomore team practiced. Our first game is at Pontiac tomorrow. Sept. 17—After playing the Pontiac Indians to a 7-7 tie at the half we began to click and came back to win by a score of 26-7. The only casualty was suffered by Bunting, who broke his finger in the second quarter. Sept. 22—We're working hard to get in shape for Bloomington, Friday, in the first intercity game. The team received more plays and we are trying to get them ready by Friday.

Sept. 24—We lost in the last two minutes of play to Bloomington in a very muddy battle. The highlight of the game was when Horney intercepted a pass and ran ninety yards for a touchdown. Sept. 28—We had a little bit of everything but are not doing much scrimmaging. Sept. 30—We're ready to play the strong Normal eleven tomorrow at McCormick field. Oct. 1—We lost to Normal in a very close game, 7-6. We scored on a lastquarter drive, but failed to make our try for the precious extra point.

PIG SKIN

Oct. 8—We beat East Peoria in a hard fought battle 13-6. Oct. 11—We ran through all of our plays every day and have had two scrimmages against the I. S. N. U. "B" team. We play at El Paso Friday night under the lights. Oct. 15—Playing under the arcs seems to be no handicap for us, as we defeated El Paso 7-0.

Oct. 17—The weather is getting a little colder and we practice every night. We play Fairbury Friday. Oct. 22—We defeated Fairbury in a fairly easy game, 18-7. Oct. 29—We swamped LeRoy to the tune of 27-0. It was mid-summer weather and was it hot! Wow! Nov. 3—We are working hard on plays, as we meet the Irish on Friday. They have a formidable outfit, having held Normal to 13 points last Friday. Nov. 6—We played listless ball during the first half and had only a 7-0 lead at the half. In the second half, we began to click and rolled up a 33-0 score before the last gun went off. The standout of the game was the defensive work of Dick Hallam and Captain Reed Yates. Nov. 9—We practiced long hours every day. We play our final game Friday at Clinton. Clinton not only outweighs us but has a very good record. Nov. 13—After having only a slight lead of 7-6 at the half, we came back to win by a score of 13-6. The touchdown which put the game on ice was a pass which "Wimpy" Wells intercepted and ran fifty yards for a touchdown with only fifty seconds left to play. We have had a very successful season, winning seven games and losing only two.

Nov. 23—The school threw a banquet for the football squad at the Co-op. The principal speaker of the evening was Fred "Brick" Young, sports editor of the Daily Pantagraph, who gave a very interesting talk on the experiences he had as a player and as an official. Thus ended the football activities for this year. —Joe Bunting

PARADE

Mar. 9—Spring is here at last and the baseball bug has begun to bite. The U. High diamonders are at it again. They had their first meeting March 9, with an early-season turn out of about forty prospects. Prospects are not too bright for Coach Poppen, since only two lettermen are returning. The veterans are Major Horney and Dick Guritz.

Mar. 14—Around the two vets, Maj. Horney, pitcher and outfielder and Dick Guritz, southpaw twirler, Coach Poppen has decided to build a team that may yet be a surprise.

Mar. 23—It begins to look as if the diamond hopefuls will see plenty of action this season, since Coach Poppen reports that ten games have already been scheduled and that there is a strong possibility that about six more will be added to the list. Mar. 25—Coach Poppen, though he has few vets, is counting a lot on some of the boys from I. S. S. C. S. who played independent ball last season and won the city championship.

Mar. 30—Ah-h-h-h! New uniforms! Let's start at the top—green caps, gray shirts with "Universtiy High" written in green and gold across it, light gray sweatshirt (no stumbling), gray pants, which won't be after the first game, and green soxs with a gold band.

What is this—a style show! Apr. 4—Coach Poppen seems to be a little more hopeful these days, since some of the neophytes are a bit surprising. There seems to be an abundance of pitching material. Among those who have shown promise are James Henson and Clayton Ellis, seniors; Dick Guritz and Tom Mills, juniors; Ronald Blakeman and Major Horney, sophomores; and Kaywin Bryant (no relation to Clay Bryant of the Chicago Cubs), Ralph Copeland, Bob Mills, and Bob Smith, freshmen. Other new men are showing up well, too. May 29—We have had a good season and Coach Poppen has a good nucleus to work with next year.—Bob Fairchild

MURDERER'S ROW

Seated: Kovaciny, Greenwood, Stillman, Foster, Learned, Gardner, Rossiter, Hallam, Keighin, Goff, Lennon. Standing: Travier, Schneeberg, Ellis, Sanders, Clark, Smith, Asher, Keltner, Ellison, Martcheniak, Stranbery, Wells, O'Connor (Coach).

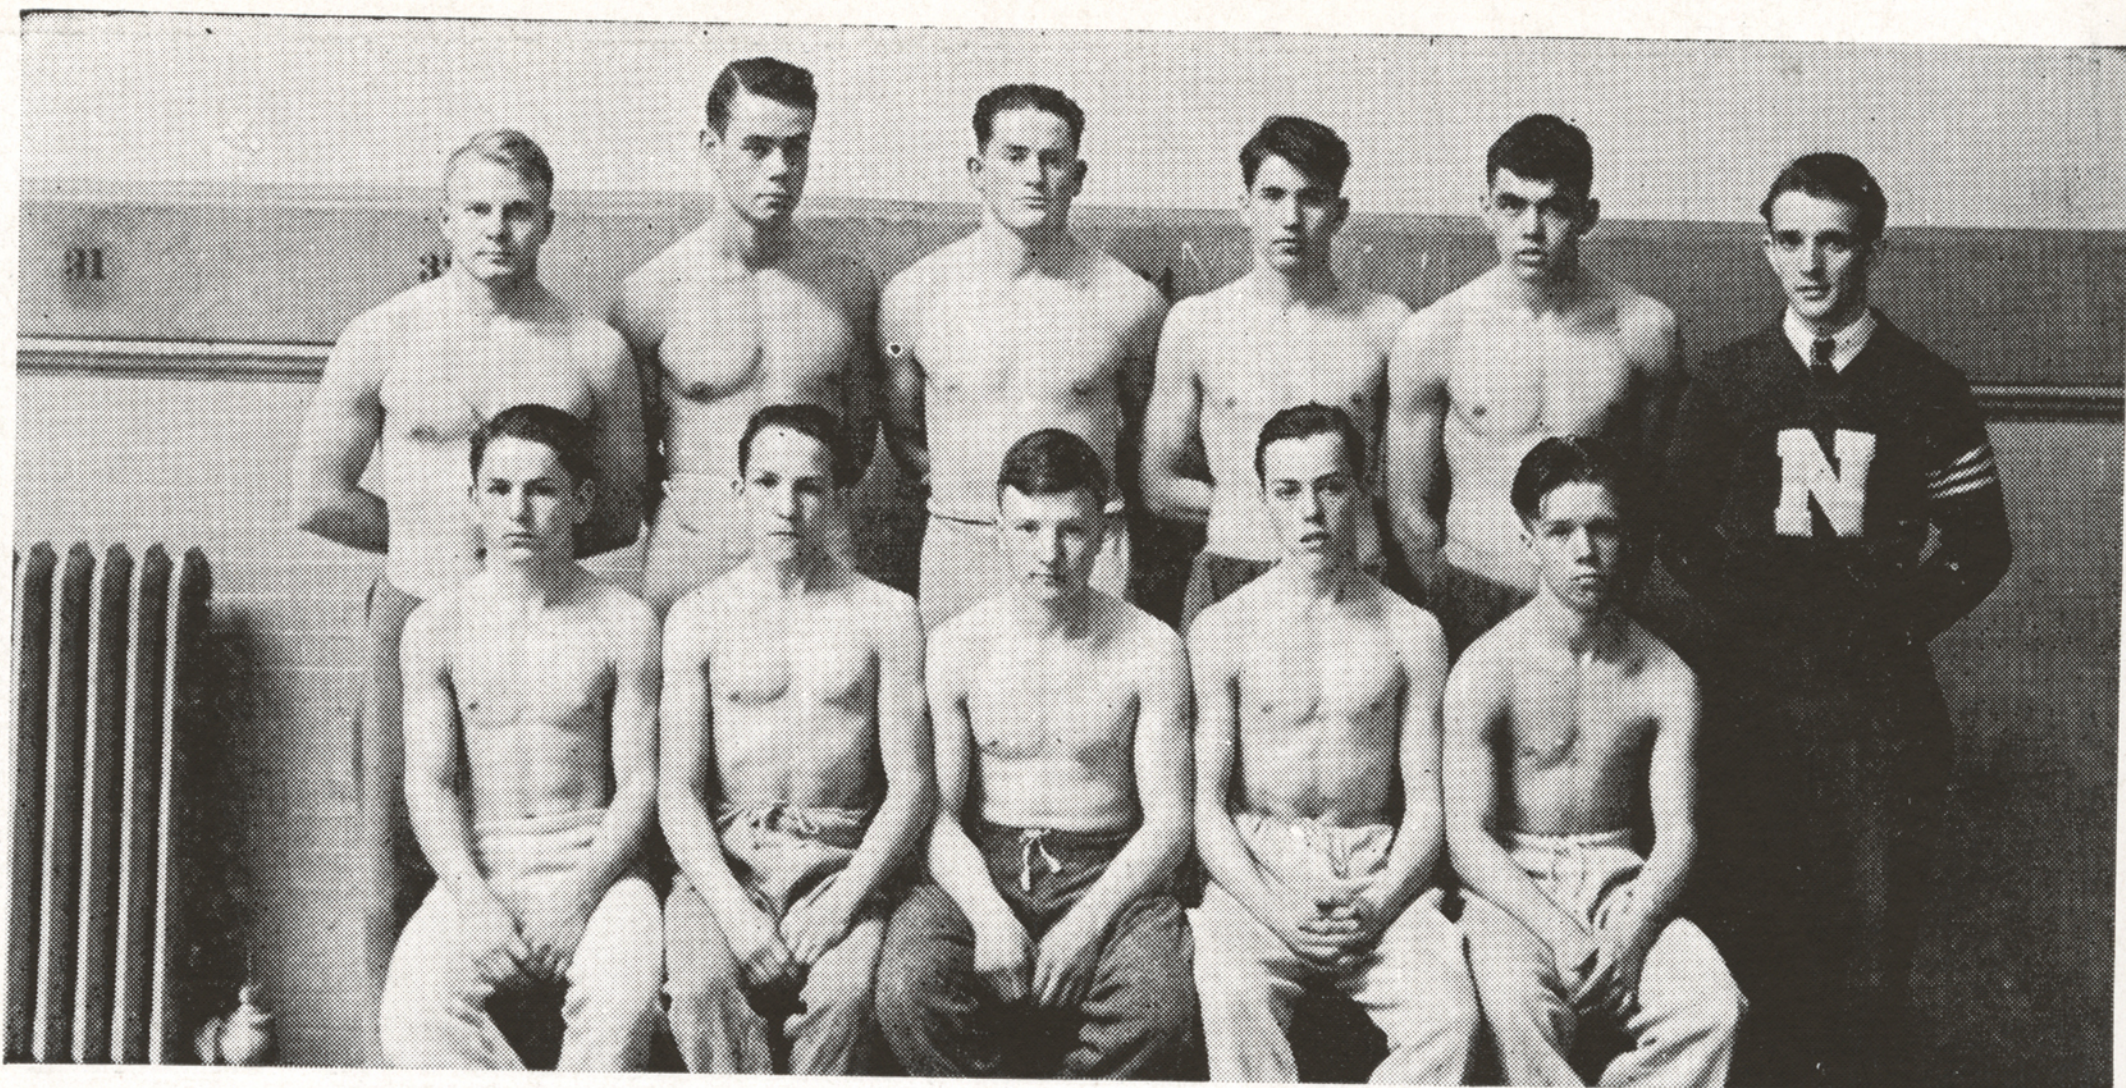

Mar. 21—On your mark! Get set! Go! These are the phrases heard on the oval down at McCormick field these days. In track, as in football and basketball, O'Connor has a shortage of experienced material. It is hoped that it will be possible to put out a good team, built around the four returning lettermen. Mar. 30—Dick Hallam is captain of the 1938 track team, and runs the dashes. Melvin Rossiter, another returning letterman, who is very fast in the 440 and 220 yard runs, should rack up quite a few firsts. Eugene Keltner was the only junior member to win a letter last year. He runs the mile. Paul Keighan, the other letter-winner, specialized on field events, the broad jump being his favorite. Others out for the dashes are Martcheniach, who broke very well, Bob Stillman, and Whitney Learned.

The middle distances with Rossiter at their head will be upheld by Goff, Jim Finley, Duncan Lennon, Clifford Stanley, and Dave Keltner. Besides Eugene Keltner, Charles Greenwood and Duncan Lennon are trying for a starting berth in the mile. Paul Keighin leads in the field events. Other contestants are Jay Foster, Earl Asher, Marvin Marx, Edwin Holcomb, James Saunders, John Egan, Delvine Schneeberg, and Fred Smith.

Apr. 2—This year the team is decked out in new suits, the pants will be white trimmed in green and the jerseys will be green trimmed in gold lettering. Mr. O'Connor has a meet scheduled for April 12, with Pontiac. The purpose of this meet will be to determine the best starters for the first intercity meet with Normal Community High School on April 21. May 12—Over on the "cabbage patch" is being constructed a new oval to aid the boys in practice. This will make it possible to practice when the field is in use by the university. This field will also be used for baseball practice. All meets and games will be scheduled down at McCormick field because of better facilities.

MEN OF IRON

Seated: Demetrulias, Greenwood, Peyton, Stillman, Gardener. Standing: Hallam, Foster, Asher, Smith, Gillette (Coach).

Feb. 1—Today U. High athletes interested in wrestling began to practice and prepare for a meet in the near future with some neighboring school. Seniors who have joined the team are Dick Hallam, Earl Ascher, Walden Cade, and Reed Yates. Arley Gillett, of I. S. N. U., is the coach. Feb. 17—The first wrestling meet was held today in Cook Hall Gymnasium with a large number of U. High enthusiasts loyally cheering the new team. Pekin furnished the opposition and defeated U. High by a score of 40 to 5. U. High's only bout was won by Earl Ascher, heavyweight, who pinned his opponent in a little over two minutes. All the bouts were won by falls, with Pekin getting the greater share of them. In spite of the defeat, the coach is well pleased with the showing the team has made, and he is anticipating a strong team for the future.

Feb. 25—The wrestling team was again defeated by Pekin at Pekin gym. March 1—U. High's green and gold matmen were victorious today in their encounter with Normal Community High at McCormick gym. Although the wrestling team has participated in three matches so far, this is the first time it has won. Normal Community was defeated 35 to 6. This is the first year for wrestling in both schools. U. High's team has shown its superiority by the fact that all of the matches except one were won on falls.

March 5—The wrestling season has come to a close with Coach Arley Gillett feeling well satisfied with his U. High team. Because of the success of the team, new suits are to be purchased next year. From all reports U. High's wrestlers for the coming year should be as good as any from the surrounding schools, and U. High students will be cheering "long and loud" for them. —Reed Yates

Harriet Jacquat was elected president; Geneva Meers, vice-president; Madelyn Blakeman, secretary; Donna Mae Ramsey, treasurer; June Meers, reporter; Madeline Lowell, board secretary; Geraldine Dabney, point secretary; and Geraldine Lowell, training rules secretary. Sept. 30—Half a dozen girls and sponsor, Miss Thielen, went to Lexington for a G. A. A. play-day. Lots of fun! Oct. 28—We staged a treasure hunt (puff, puff) which ended in a wiener roast at the University farm. Nov. 22—Bruised shins, aching muscles, and battered toes—all of which signified that G. A. A. is busy practicing for the annual varsity-alumnae hockey game. Nov. 10—Hurrah! G. A. A. came through with flying colors. The score was 2-1.

Nov. 13—Some early risers took a breakfast hike this morning. Dec. 21—We topped off the volleyball tournament with a party which was given by the losers. Jan. 9.—G. A. A. sponsored an all-school matinee dance from 3:00 to 3:45. Feb. 25—G. A. A. held a party at the Children's School Lodge. We celebrated "President Cotton's" birthday with the eating of a big cake (minus the candles, however). Mar. 3—Today G. A. A. had charge of the assembly. A boy's tumbling team from the Children's School performed. Mar. 4—We held initiation for new members today. Initiates were distinguished by their white whiskers and darkened brows.

Mar. 14—The annual basket-shooting contest was held this afternoon. We did quite well. Mar. 28—There has been an improvement in G. A. A. attendance on hobby nights, perhaps due to the deck-tennis and ping-pong establishment erected in the dressing room. Apr. 27—Spring fever has hit the club, so everyone turns out for baseball (well, almost everyone). May 19—We ended the year somewhat ostentatiously by holding our G. A. A. picnic at Shalain.—Geneva Meers
